The Belt and Road Chinese Stamp Exhibition 2017

The Chinese Stamp Exhibition is divided into four sections, namely: 1. Heavenly Creations• The origin of stamps in China; 2. Magnificent Scenery• The natural beauty of mountains and rivers in China; 3. Distant history • The humanistic beauty in China; 4. Significant Development• The beauty of dramatic change in China.

First of all, the four sections include 135 sub-themes with a total of 1,628 stamps, covering from the first Chinese stamp "Panlong" issued by Chinese Imperial Post in Qing Dynasty to the latest "The Belt and Road" commemorative stamps. Among them, many are the first-issued stamps of each series, such as "Panlong"- the first Chinese stamp, "Tiananmen Regular Stamps"- the first regular stamps and "The Founding Stamps"- the first set of special commemorative stamps (referred to as the commemorative 1 – 4) since the establishment of the People's Republic of China, "Kang Shen – The Year of Monkey" - the first birthday stamps (issued in 1980, also referred to as 80 version of monkey stamps), "West Lake"- the first landscape stamps, etc.

Secondly, the exhibition also includes valuable stamps. Taking 80 version of the monkey stamps as an example, the value of one version is 1.2 million RMB in the auction in 2011 and 10,000 RMB for ticket price in 2016.

Thirdly, this exhibition has full versions of the stamps, including the whole sets of stamps of Yangtze River, Yellow River, Chinese Five Famous Mountains, Chinese Ancient Paintings, Chinese Opera, Chinese Four Great Classical Novels and Chinese Zodiac (one to four), etc. Therefore, with numerous, valuable stamps displayed together, the exhibition will bring a unique experience for visitors and stamp collectors.
