

Are you looking for a company where you can be part of a team and the ability to boost your career and the business? Then don't pass up this opportunity.

PV CYCLE, the most dynamic worldwide recycling organization for PV (solar) panels, a growing company, creates opportunity for talents that love working in recycling and sustainability. We offer services all around the world and have locations in Italy, Germany, France and USA. Our customers belong to local and international leading brands.

We have an attractive temporarily opening within our Sales Team and are looking as soon as possible for the position of a

Sales Representative China and Indian Market, m/f

WHAT YOU WILL DO:

- Phone potential clients in our market and offer them our services.
- Report directly to the Membership Manager.

WHAT YOU NEED TO HAVE:

- A degree in sales or business. Other disciplines are encouraged to apply
- Proven track record with a first sales experience within FMCG industry and or in a similar related field.
- Understanding of local competition and market rates in order to drive results
- Fluent in Chinese and English. Any other language will be an asset
- With highly developed communication skills, and a versatile, competitive and enthusiastic personality
- Multi tasker who uses project management skills to accomplish goals

WHAT WE OFFER:

- A fast-paced and international working environment
- A full-time job based in Brussels during a limited period of - in first order – three months
- Immediate start

Are you up for the challenge? Thank you for sending your application with your salary expectations to Yaqun Xu: hr@pvcycle.org