Self-description

Having participated in multiple associations in the university, I enjoy teamwork and interpersonal communication. I'm punctual and active, willing to try new things and meet different people. I often remind myself of a sense of responsibility and being considerate of other colleges. And I'm still making efforts to improve my management skills.

Additional activities

- In high school, I participated in student association for charity, working in the HR section, and help orphans to learn English.
- During the master program, I focus on the posthuman approach and study the human-nature relations cultural relativism. Meanwhile, I had the chance to grasp skills for good interviews and communication with different groups of people during my fieldwork (one was in the care center of Leuven and the other was in Chinese gardens of Suzhou and Hangzhou).
