

Curriculum Vitae PING CHEN

Name: Ping Chen
Mobile: 0489619512
E-mail: Carolinepc86@gmail.com

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Marketing Internship
February 2017- until now, Dingsheng Law Firm (a strategic partner firm with DBB law firm), Brussels, Belgium
 - Approached to potential clients through a think-outside-the-box method
 - Tracked and wrote briefings on the development of European laws, including real estate law, company law, commercial law, labour law, contract law, migration law and climate law
 - Customer service: Responded to requests from the clients
 - Collected information and data analysis
 - Advertisement on different expat forums and websites
- Legal analyst (part-time)
April 2017- until now, Darts-ip, Brussels, Belgium
 - Analysed legal cases in the field of intellectual property law
 - Updated analysis and information of the cases in the central data system
- Legal Researcher
September 2009- June 2014, Ghent University, Ghent, Belgium
 - Wrote analytical articles for publication
 - Led a research project and planned research schedule
 - Participated in international and national conferences to establish network
- Administrative and research assistant
July – September 2013, IETA (International Emissions Trading Association) Brussels office, Belgium
 - Tracked and wrote briefs on the climate law in EU and China
 - Explained the China's carbon law and policy to the international members and clients of IETA
 - Wrote a user's guide on the Chinese carbon market in collaboration with the director of international climate policy of IETA Brussels Office
 - Assisted IETA Secretariat in the Business Partnership for Market Readiness (B-PMR) Mission
- Interview planner and organizer
April – May 2013, China
 - Initiated and designed an interview programme
 - Persuaded my promoter for funding, prepared the interview questions and arranged the travelling routes
 - Conducted interviews with the stakeholders of carbon trading
 - Recorded and analysed the interview contents
- Administrative assistant
20 – 22 September 2012, Ghent, Belgium
 - Assisted the secretary for the EU-China Environmental Law Conference
 - Guided international scholars in one-day city tour programme
- Academic and administrative assistant (student job)
2007-2008, Wuhan, Hubei Province, China
 - Assisted secretary with academic conferences and events organization
 - Organized conference registration
 - Prepared and updated research progress for professor
 - Provided analytical support to research projects

EDUCATION

- 2009 September – 2014 June Doctor of Law – Law Faculty of Ghent University, Belgium
- 2007 September – 2009 June Master of Environmental Law – Research Institute of Environmental Law, Wuhan University, China (the top 1 environmental law institute in China)
- 2003 September – 2007 June Bachelor of Laws – Law Faculty of Wuhan University, China (the top 3rd law school in China)

LANGUAGE SKILLS

- Chinese (Native language)
- English (CEF C1-C2 level: proficient user)
- Dutch (CEF B2+ level: independent user)

PUBLICATIONS

- Doctoral Dissertation: A comparative legal study of emissions trading systems in the European Union and in China (2014)
- Ping Chen and Frank Maes, 'Cap and trade versus carbon tax to mitigate climate change: a one-size-fits-all solution in China?' (2014) – published in book 'the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law Series: Global Environmental Law at a Crossroads' by Edward Elgar Press, p.211-227
- Ping Chen, 'Interim measures for voluntary Greenhouse gas emissions trading' (2013) – published in the IUCN Academy of environmental law E-journal, p.117-123
- Jeff Swartz and Ping Chen, 'A user's guide to emissions trading in China' (2013) IETA working report – published by the International Emissions Trading Association (IETA) Brussels Office online: <http://www.ieta.org/a-user-guide-to-emissions-trading-in-china--september-2013>
- Tianbao Qin and Ping Chen, 'The environmental fee-for-tax reform in China: a one-size-for-all solution for environmental problems?' (2009) – published in book 'Critical issues in environmental taxation: international and comparative perspectives, volume VII' by Oxford University Press, p.557-568

CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION

- 1 – 5 July, 2012, 10th IUCN Academy of Environmental Law Colloquium, Maryland, USA
Presentation: 'Carbon tax v. cap and trade, one-size-fits-all-solution in China?'
- 21 October 2011, 12th Global Conference on Environmental Taxation (GCET) Global conference on environmental taxation, Madrid, Spain
Presentation: 'The Legal Prerequisites for the Establishment of carbon trading system in China'
- 22 – 23 October 2010, 21st Ph.D. Workshop on International Climate Policy, Zurich, Switzerland
Presentation: 'Exploring Domestic Emissions Trading System in China: External Implications from European Union Emissions Trading Scheme'
- 14 – 16 September 2010, 8th IUCN Academy of Environmental Law Colloquium, Ghent, Belgium
Presentation: 'European Union Emissions Trading Scheme: Institutional Lessons for China'
- 6 – 7 November 2008, 9th Global Conference on Environmental Taxation (GCET), Singapore
Presentation: 'The Environmental Fee-for-Tax Reform in China: A One-size-for-all solution for environmental problems?'

EXTRA TRAINING PROGRAMMES

- Coursera course: European Business Law- Doing Business in Europe, organized by Lund University
- European Business Law: Competing in Europe by Lund University on Coursera. Certificate earned on August 7, 2017
- European Business Law: Doing Business in Europe by Lund University on Coursera. Certificate earned on April 2, 2017
- Doctoral school training of Ghent University. Certificate earned in June 2014.

Note: I obtained legal residence and work permit from Belgian government.